MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT : Redelegation of OSA-DD/R Contracting Officer Authority
REFERENCE (a) : Memorandum for Acting DCI, dated 1 September 1962, subject: Delegation of OSA-DD/R Contracting Officer Authority.

1. This memorandum contains a recommendation for approval by the Deputy Director, CIA. Such recommendation is contained in Paragraph 4.

2. By reference (a) the Acting DCI concurred in the designation of [redacted] as the OSA-DD/R Contracting Officer, with the right to redelegate to [redacted] such authority as required to accomplish cover procurement under NRO Programs assigned to General Greer, Director Program B.

3. The work load of the Contracts Division and the need for expeditious contract action makes it desirable that the OSA-DD/R Contracting Officer have the authority to redelegate contracting officer authority, during any period of his absence from headquarters, to [redacted] Deputy Chief, Contracts Division, OSA. [redacted] has been in his present position with the Agency since March 1958, prior to which time he had served as Contracting Officer for various aircraft projects, USAF Air Materiel Command (such as B-45, B/BB-57, X-16, WS 302A Programs), and is considered well qualified professionally for this responsibility.

4. It is, therefore, recommended that you approve the above redelegation of Contracting authority to [redacted]

Redelegation authorities contained in Paragraph 3,
APPROVED:

EDWARD B. GILLER
Acting Deputy Director
Research
